

LAI / Lensvelt De Architect 2011 Interior Award

During the Ceremony Award held at the RDM Campus in Rotterdam last Thursday 24th November, Studio Rolf.fr (www.rolf.fr) in partnership with Zecc Architecten (www.zecc.nl) received from Hans Lensvelt, the 2011 Lensvelt De Architect Interieurprijs for the Zwarte Parel project realized in Rotterdam.

The management of Lensvelt Company together with the editors of De Architect magazine, promoted this year for the eleventh time, the Lensvelt De Architect Interior Award for a project realized in the Netherlands or Belgium. Aim of the award is to enhance a professional and innovative interior design discipline.

"The LAI prize represents for Lensvelt another way to express our passion in good design and our attention to the work of talented architects. Their work inspire us. They are our eyes and ears in the world and their suggestions help us to think about the products of the future." Hans Lensvelt quotes.
